

Local asymptotic p-values under the two background treatments

One-sided discovery statistic: $Z = \max(r, 0)$, $p_0 = 1 - \Phi(Z)$; no trials correction

Fixed-mean p-values assume that the estimated GP mean is exactly known; they are not calibrated significances.
 2016 and the combination inherit the disclosed numerical exception. Neighboring mass hypotheses are correlated.