

Traditional local fits at GP-selected masses | 2021 10%

Original observed data | fixed Gaussian mass and resolution | positive exponential-polynomial background

Counting bars only; fitted-background subtraction creates correlated residuals. Variant widths are total window widths. Large roots can arise from inadequate backgrounds: read the deviance and all variants together. No preferred variant selected. Selected local references and model checks, not independent confirmation or a global significance.